Introduction:

Israel's policy of extra-judicially executing Palestinians allegedly involved in armed resistance against the Israeli occupation of Palestine has been meticulously documented by the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights (PCHR). The continuing silence of the international community, including High Contracting Parties to the Fourth Geneva Convention, has actively encouraged Israel to act as though it is above the law and to continue committing gross human rights violations against the Palestinian people, including hundreds of extra-judicial executions.

IOF have carried out these extra-judicial executions of Palestinian activists whom they accuse of carrying out, or planning, armed attacks against the Israeli Occupation Forces (IOF) in the Occupied Palestinian Territory (OPT) and/or inside the State of Israel. IOF have also targeted the political leaders of Palestinian organizations. By failing to produce any evidence linking the targeted individual to attacks allegedly committed by members of the Palestinian resistance, as well as failing to utilize peaceful means in order to arrest and detain suspects, IOF has assumed the role of both judge and executioner.

Since the beginning of the Second Intifada in September 2000, PCHR has consistently investigated and documented extra-judicial executions committed by IOF in the OPT, as well as demanding the international community intervene effectively in order to pressurize Israel to stop all extra-judicial executions. The Centre has established a database that keeps statistics on all extra-judicial executions, and attempted executions, carried out by IOF in the OPT.

In addition, PCHR has also published a series of reports and fact sheets on extra-judicial executions committed by IOF against Palestinians in the OPT during the second Intifada. This report is the eighth in the series. It covers the period between 1 August 2006- 30 June 2008.

Extra-Judicial Executions, International Declarations and International Humanitarian Law (IHL)

Extra-judicial executions are gross violations of universally agreed human rights that enshrine the right to life. Article 3 of the (1948) Universal Declaration of Human Rights states that "Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person". Article 6 of the (1966) International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights states that "Every human being has the inherent right to life. This right shall be protected by law. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his life". Article 6 of the Covenant clarifies that, "In countries which have not abolished the death penalty, sentence of death may be imposed only for the most serious crimes in accordance with the law in force at the time of the committing of the crime and not contrary to the provisions of the present Covenant and to the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide. This penalty can only be carried out pursuant to a final judgment rendered by a competent court". This final sentence ascertains that all High Contracting Parties to the Covenant have a right to deliver and carry out judgment of a death penalty only under specific circumstances that ensure a just judgment has already been reached. Therefore, the defendant on trial must be convicted of having committed a "most serious" crime, and the final judgment condemning the defendant to death must be rendered by a competent court.

International Law therefore addresses the issue of extra-judicial executions, that by definition lack any notion of judicial process, and thus deprive the targeted individual(s) from their right to life, as well as the right to defend themselves against the charges against them. According to the first principle of the (1989) United Nations 'Principles on the Effective Prevention and Investigation of Extra-legal, Arbitrary and Summary Executions',¹ "Governments shall prohibit by law all extra-legal, arbitrary and summary executions and shall ensure that any such executions are recognized as offences under their criminal laws, and are punishable by appropriate penalties which take into account the seriousness of such offences. Exceptional circumstances, including a state of war or threat of war, internal political instability or any other public emergency may not be invoked as a justification of such executions. Such executions shall not be carried out under any circumstances including, but not limited to, situations of internal armed conflict, excessive or illegal use of force by a public official or other person acting in an official capacity or by a person acting at the instigation, or with the consent or acquiescence of such person, and situations in which deaths occur in custody. This prohibition shall prevail over decrees issued by governmental authority".

All of these articles and provisions are applicable to civilian populations living under military occupation as well as populations who live under national state authorities. Moreover, populations living under a foreign occupation force enjoy special protection under the provisions of the Fourth 1949 Geneva Convention relative to the protection of civilians during times of war. Under article 3 of the Convention, all forms of actions related to "Violence to life and person", "Murder of all kinds, mutilation, cruel treatment and torture" and "The passing of sentences and the carrying out of executions without previous judgment pronounced by a regularly constituted court, affording all the judicial guarantees which are recognized as indispensable by civilized peoples" are prohibited at all times and in all circumstances.

Even if a person is condemned to death by a regularly constituted court, civilians protected under the Convention, according to Article 75, enjoy the right to, "Petition for pardon or reprieve". Article 33 (of the Convention) states that "No protected person may be punished for an offence he or she has not personally committed. Collective penalties and likewise all measures of intimidation or of terrorism are prohibited. Pillage is prohibited. Reprisals against protected persons and their property are prohibited".

Under article 147 of the Convention, the Contracting Parties' lack of commitment [to the Convention] constitutes one of the "Grave Breaches" of the Convention. Article 85 of Protocol 1 of the Fourth Geneva Convention defines "Grave Breaches as, "Acts committed willfully and causing death or serious injury to body or health..., making the civilian population or individual civilians the object of attack..., launching an indiscriminate attack affecting the civilian population or civilian objects...."

In addition, the (2002) Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court defines these grave violations as war crimes. According to article 8 of the Statute, war crimes include:

"(a) Grave breaches of the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949, namely, any of the following acts against persons or property protected under the provisions of the relevant Geneva Convention:

(i) "Willful killing...."

(iv) "Intentionally launching an attack in the knowledge that such attack will cause incidental loss of life or injury to civilians or damage to civilian objects...."

(vi) "Killing or wounding a combatant who, having laid down his arms or having no longer means of defense..."

(iv) "The passing of sentences and the carrying out of executions without previous judgment pronounced by a regularly constituted court, affording all judicial guarantees which are generally recognized as indispensable."

(e) ...

(ix) "Killing or wounding treacherously a combatant adversary..."

Extra-judicial executions: an Official Israeli Policy

Extra-judicial executions are the most blatant example of Israel's policy of committing summary executions of Palestinians in the OPT. These premeditated executions are carried out with the explicit approval of the highest ranking Israeli political and military officials, who claim these executions are "Targeted killings" of Palestinians who allegedly threaten the security of the State of Israel.

IOF extra-judicial executions of Palestinians enjoy legal cover provided by the Israeli judiciary. In many cases, the Government of Israel openly immediately admits it has committed these extra-judicial executions, claiming they are successfully confronting direct threats to Israel's national security. In March 2006, the Israeli Internal Security Minister, Avi Dichter, claimed that if Isma'il Haniya (who was a candidate for Prime Minister at the time) and his group continued "With their policy of terrorism," they would, when they formed their Government, either be arrested, or else face the same destiny as Sheikh Ahmed Yassin (who was executed by an Israeli air strike on 22 March, 2004).² On 27 August, 2006, Dan Haluts, former Israeli Army Chief of Staff, stated that "The list of targeted persons in the Gaza strip includes 15 names" in a clear reference to Israel's official Israeli policy of extra-judicial executions. Haluts told the US Washington Post newspaper that "Targeted killing is the most important method in the fight against terrorism"³. During an interview with Israeli Army Radio on 13 May, 2007, former Infrastructure Minister Binyamin Ben-Eliezer publicly stated that "We decided to carry out more physical liquidation operations against [Palestinian] terrorists..... I think this will eliminate the damage caused to Israeli territory due to the launching of Palestinian rockets". This statement also confirmed Israel's extra-judicial execution policy.

In the vast majority of cases of extra-judicial execution, IOF has not provided any evidence that the Palestinians it has executed have been engaged in military action against IOF military personnel or settlers in either the OPT or Israel. The executions of Palestinians are carried out without any recourse to due process, including investigations into any crimes that have apparently been committed or may be committed. Following an extra-judicial execution, IOF sources routinely claim the targeted Palestinians were executed for their 'terrorist' activities, without explaining what these activities were. However, on other occasions IOF either maintain an official silence, or else deny responsibility for the extra-judicial execution(s). When IOF admit their responsibility for an extra-judicial execution, they consistently claim the victims were "terrorists". IOF use this word to justify their crimes, although the necessary evidence is never produced, and Israeli sources routinely use rhetoric in order to indicate that Palestinians have been executed for terrorist activities. However, there is no justification for the extra-judicial execution of any person. An extra-judicial execution is a summary execution of an individual without any recourse to due process, including the individual having the right to defend him or herself, or to be defended, in a court of law. These executions therefore constitute grave violations of all international human rights law instruments, including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the Fourth Geneva Convention.

Facts and Data

From the beginning of the Second Intifada in September 2000, until 30 June 2008, the Israeli Occupation Forces (IOF) carried out 348 extra-judicial execution operations in the OPT. During these operations, a total of 754 Palestinians were executed, which is 20% of the overall number of Palestinians killed by IOF⁴ since the beginning of the Second Intifada. The victims included 521 targeted persons, and 233 bystanders, including 71 children and 20 women. 405 of the victims were executed in the Gaza Strip and 350 were executed in the West Bank. In the Gaza Strip, 248 of the victims were targeted people, and 157 were civilian bystanders. In the West Bank, 274 of the victims were targeted persons and 76 were civilian bystanders.

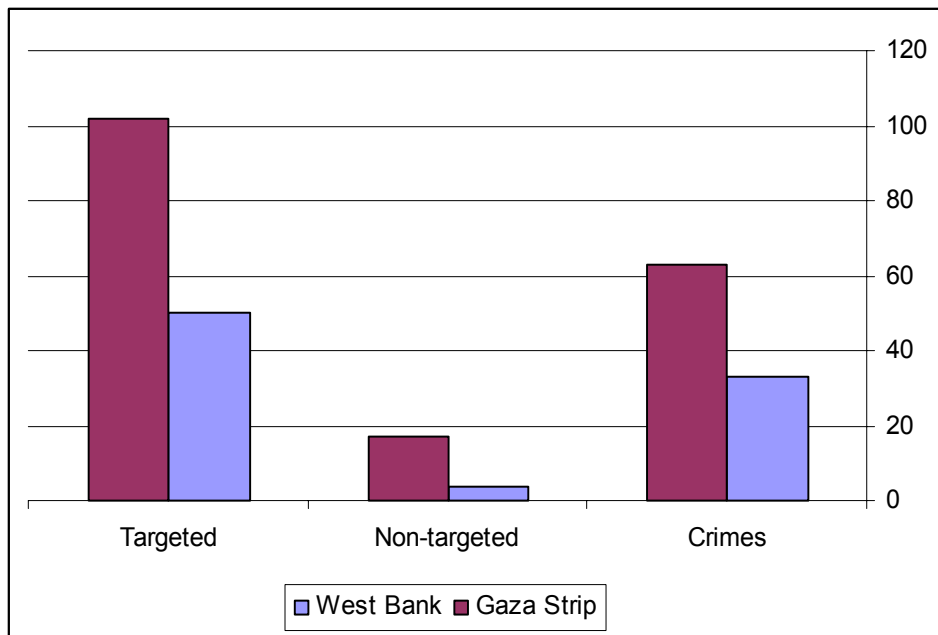

From 1 August 2006- 30 June 2008, the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights (PCHR) documented 96 IOF extra-judicial execution operations carried out against Palestinian activists allegedly involved in the planning or implementing of military operations against Israeli targets in the OPT or Israel. These 96 IOF operations resulted in the extra-judicial execution of 173 Palestinians: 150 of the victims were targeted persons and 23 were civilian bystanders, including three women and three children. Sixty three of the IOF extra-judicial operations were carried out in the Gaza Strip, where 119 Palestinians were executed: 102 of the victims were targeted persons and 17 were civilian bystanders. Thirty three operations were carried out in the West Bank, where 54 Palestinians were executed: 50 of the victims were targeted persons and 4 were civilian bystanders.⁵

During the reporting period, PCHR documented 14 extra-judicial execution operations that failed to kill the intended target (s). These operations all took place in the Gaza Strip, and although the intended target(s) survived, fourteen bystanders were injured. On 11 September 2006, an IOF drone launched a missile at a white Subaru car that was traveling north of Rafah, carrying several activists from the Al-Quds Brigades, the armed wing of Islamic Jihad. The missile missed the target, and the activists fled from the car. Minutes later, the drone launched a second missile that destroyed the empty car.

On 3 October 2006, an IOF drone launched 2 missiles at a white Subaru car carrying three activists of the Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades, an armed wing of the Fatah movement. The car was traveling on Sal al-Din Street towards Beit Hanoun in the northern Gaza Strip and the first missile was launched as the car reached the outskirts of Beit Hanoun. The first missile missed its target, and the occupants fled before the second missile was launched, which set the car on fire. The three resistance activists sustained shrapnel wounds as they fled, and a second car traveling in the same street was also set ablaze by the second missile strike. Two civilians traveling in a third car near the site of the air strikes also received shrapnel wounds.

⁴ According to PCHR data, since the beginning of the Second Intifada, IOF killed at least 4,803 Palestinians in the Gaza strip and the West Bank. This number includes 3706 civilians: 2038 in the Gaza Strip and 1668 in the West Bank.

Diagram 1

Victims of Extra-judicial executions in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank
1 August 2006 – 30 June 2008

These figures reveal that the number of victims killed in every extra-judicial execution operation carried out in the Gaza Strip exceeded the number of victims killed in the West Bank. In the Gaza Strip, the average number of victims per extra-judicial operation is 1.85. However, the 63 extra-judicial execution operations carried out in the Gaza Strip from 1 August 2006 – 30 June 2008 included fourteen operations that failed to kill their target. Therefore, IOF carried out 49 extra-judicial execution operations in the Gaza Strip that resulted in the deaths of Palestinians. Taking this factor into account, the average number of victims per extra-judicial operation in the Gaza Strip is in actuality 2.4 per extra-judicial operation. In the West Bank the average number of victims per extra-judicial operation is 1.62. The higher number of victims in the Gaza Strip is due to IOF use of aircrafts and tanks to shell civilian houses and vehicles in densely populated residential areas. In the West Bank, extra-judicial execution operations carried out by IOF during the reported period employed IOF undercover units who ambush victims and shoot them from extremely close range.

Diagram 2

Number of extra-judicial execution operations⁶ and victims in West Bank and Gaza Strip Governorates, 1 August 2006 – 30 June 2008

The above diagram illustrates that the highest number of IOF extra-judicial executions were carried out in Gaza Governorate and Jenin; 36 operations were carried out in Gaza Governorate and 32 in Jenin. The percentage of victims in these two governorates represents 40% of the total number of victims.

Diagram 3

⁶ IOF carried out 14 attempted extra-judicial operations during the reporting period: these attempted operations are not included in the diagram.

Diagram 3 illustrates the number of non-targeted victims of extra-judicial executions carried out by IOF in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank since September 2000, is 233 (31% of the total number of victims) This exposes IOF utter disregard for the lives of Palestinian civilians.

Diagram 4

Number of victims (targeted and non-targeted) per year since September 2000:

Diagram 4 also confirms IOF disregard for the lives of Palestinian civilians. It illustrates that civilian bystanders have been killed in extra-judicial execution operations throughout the years of the Second Intifada. This completely undermines the IOF claim to carry out so-called ‘targeted killings’ without threatening Palestinian civilians' lives. During the 3 first years of the Second Intifada, there was a steady increase in the number of victims of extra-judicial executions. During the fourth year, the number dropped as IOF carried out less extra-judicial operations. However, the number of operations increased in the fifth year, and, taking into consideration the number of civilian bystanders killed, the number has remained almost constant over the last two years.

Methods employed in attempted extra-judicial executions

During the reporting period, IOF carried out 96 extra-judicial executions in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank. During these operations, IOF employed 3 main execution methods:

1. Launching missiles at the target

During the reporting period, IOF launched missiles at targets using aircrafts, tanks, missile launchers or gunboats during 63 extra-judicial execution operations, which were all carried out in the Gaza Strip. At the beginning of the Second Intifada, the IOF employed helicopters to carry out extra-judicial executions in the OPT. Afterwards they also began to use F16 planes. More recently, IOF have used un-manned drones to carry out extra-judicial operations.⁷

2. Undercover units

Undercover units are members of the Israeli military who disguise themselves as Palestinians and move into OPT for the specific purpose of carrying out extra-judicial execution operations against Palestinians. These IOF units were established during the first Intifada between 1987- 1993. They managed to kill and arrest dozens of Palestinian activists, and they continued extra-judicial operations after the end of the First Intifada. They were particularly active in the West Bank, and became more intensively active after the eruption of the Second Intifada in September 2000.

During the reporting period, IOF undercover units carried out 28 extra-judicial execution operations in the West Bank, killing 42 civilians. PCHR investigations revealed that in the majority of cases, IOF could undoubtedly have arrested their targets: however, in the overwhelming majority of cases IOF shot their targets dead at close range.

3. IOF ambushes of targets' houses

This IOF method is commonly used in the West Bank. During the reporting period, IOF carried out 5 extra-judicial execution operations using this method. All of these operations were carried out in the West Bank, and resulted in the execution of 12 civilians.

⁷ This excludes a single extra-judicial execution operation carried out by IOF against 2 Palestinian activists in the West Bank on 9 August, 2006. According to a PCHR investigation, on 9 August an IOF helicopter launched 3 air-to-surface missiles at an unoccupied house belonging to Mazen Farid Hawasheen in the Al-Sumran neighborhood of Jenin refugee camp. One of the missiles landed on the road between Barqeen village and Jenin city, while the other two missiles hit the house directly. Two Palestinian civilians who had been sheltering in the house were killed: 26-year-old Mohammed Majed Ahmed Atiq, and 22-year-old Amjad Said Ahmed Al-Ajami. IOF claimed Atiq and Al-Ajami were wanted men. Since the implementation of the 2002 "Operation Defensive Wall," this has been the only IOF extra-judicial operation carried out in the West Bank using missiles.

Extra-judicial methods of execution, 1 August 2006 – 30 June 2008

Extra-judicial Executions carried out by IOF in the OPT

As previously noted, IOF continued carrying out extra-judicial executions against Palestinian civilians in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank throughout the reporting period. These crimes claimed the lives of civilians in their homes, streets, vehicles and workplaces. In several cases, entire families were killed whilst in their own homes, including children, women and elderly people. This demonstrates IOF utter disregard for the lives of civilians in their own homes. Following an extra-judicial execution operation on 22 July, 2002, that targeted Salah Shehada, a leader of the Ezzedeem Al-Qassam Brigades (the armed wing of Hamas), IOF subsequently admitted they knew Shehada was with his wife and children and that he was living in a densely populated residential area. The (former) Israeli Army Chief of Staff, General Moshe Ya'alon, admitted that the Israeli Government was fully aware Shehada's wife and daughter "Were close to him during the implementation of the assassination ... and there was no way out of conducting the operation despite their presence."⁸

⁸ PCHR Assassination of Palestinians: an Israeli official policy, report on extra-judicial killings committed by the IOF, 1 May 2002-28 September 2002.

IOF used an F16 airplane to drop a 2,000-lbs bomb on the house of Salah Shehada on the night of 22 July, 2002. As a result, 16 civilians were killed, 77 others were injured, and the house was completely destroyed. In addition, two neighboring houses were also destroyed and thirty two partially destroyed. The victims included Shehada, his wife, his female child, his assistant, eight children, including a baby of 2 months, two elderly men and two women.⁹

1. The Al-Hayia family

The IOF extra-judicial execution operation carried out against the Al-Hayia family was one of the most extreme extra-judicial execution crimes committed by IOF against civilians in the OPT during the reporting period.¹⁰

According to PCHR documentation, on 20 May 2007, an IOF aircraft fired a missile at a meeting hall belonging to the Al-Hayia family in the al-Shejaeya neighborhood of eastern Gaza City. The missile directly hit the hall, killing seven members of the family, plus an eighth person from another family. In addition, three other civilians were wounded. The meeting hall was adjacent to the house of Dr. Khalil Imsa'il Al-Hayia, member of the Palestinian Legislative Council and a prominent leader of Hamas, who was not at home at the time of the IOF attack. At first it was assumed that Dr. Al-Haya was the target of an IOF extra-judicial execution operation. But later IOF announced via its own media sources that their target had been Sameh Saleh Farawana, who they alleged had been planning "terrorist" activities against Israel. The eight victims of the extra-judicial operations were later identified as:

1. Sameh Saleh Farawana, a Hamas activist
2. Ala'a Nemer Al-Hayia, 21, a Hamas activist
3. Nemer Isma'il Al-Hayia, (65)
4. Abdul Majeed Isma'il Al-Hayia, (53)
5. Jihad Abdul Majeed Al-Hayia, (17)
6. Ibrahim Mohammed Al-Hayia, (30)

⁹ Ibid

¹⁰ Other extra judicial execution operations during the reporting period include an operation on 12 July, 2006. During the operation, an IOF aircraft launched two missiles at a 2-storey house in the Al-Sheikh Radwan district of Gaza city. The house belonged to Dr. Nabil Abdol Latif Abu Selmeya. Dr. Abu Selmeya was killed with his wife and 7 children. The house was completely destroyed and about 34 bystanders were injured, including 5 children and 6 women. Serious damage was caused to 15 neighboring houses. Following the operation, IOF announced they were targeting Mohammed Al-Deif, the leader of the armed wing of Hamas and apparently the man most wanted by IOF. IOF alleged Al- Deif had been in the targeted house at the time of the operation.

7. Isma'il Khaled Al-Hayia, (19)
8. Mohammed Khaled Al-Hayia, (16).

The injured victims were:

1. Udai Abdul Majeed Al-Hayia, (16), sustained a shrapnel head injury;
2. Zeiad Abdul Majeed Al-Hayia, (19), injured by shrapnel
3. Arafat Ouda Al-Hayia, (30), seriously wounded by shrapnel in the abdomen.

2. The Al-Yazji family

In spite of the Israeli justifications given following the extra-judicial execution operation carried out against the extended Al-Hayia family, there was international condemnation of the extra-judicial execution operation. However, Israel continued its policy of extra-judicial execution operations. The International Community subsequently remained silent about Israel's continuing use of extra judicial execution operations, and Israel used this silence as complicity, in order to continue to act as though it were above the law, and to carry out further extra-judicial execution operations, with utter disregard to the cost of the lives of Palestinian civilians.

On 16 January 2008, an IOF aircraft fired a missile at a civilian vehicle carrying three members of the same family, including a 5-year-old boy. The vehicle was traveling in Al-Nafaq Street, in the Al-Daraj neighborhood east of Gaza City. The missile hit the vehicle, instantly killing 27 year old Mohammed Hashem Mohammed Al-Yazji, his 5-year-old son, Ameer, and his 40-year-old brother, Amer. In addition, three bystanders were injured in the attack.

The Israeli media subsequently reported that IOF sources admitted the vehicle was attacked by mistake, and the target of the IOF attack was another vehicle, in which Palestinian resistance activists had been traveling.¹¹

3. August 2007, extra-judicial execution operation in Rafah

On August 4 2007, IOF carried out an extra-judicial execution operation that killed two civilians and injured twelve others; however, the 3 targeted people escaped despite sustaining serious injuries. According to PCHR investigations, on 4 August, an IOF aircraft fired a missile at a civilian car that was traveling on Salah al Din Road, north of Rafah International Crossing Point, on the Egyptian border. Three members of the al-Quds Brigades (the armed wing of Islamic Jihad) were traveling in the car. The missile hit the front of the car, injuring the three men, who nevertheless managed to escape from the vehicle. A few minutes later, an IOF aircraft fired 2 missiles at another civilian vehicle that was pulling a container and had stopped just 20 meters away from the entrance to Rafah International Crossing Point. The driver of the vehicle, 42-year-old Midhat Ahmed al-Halabi, and a civilian bystander, 30-year-old Hisham Nasser al-Jamal, were both instantly killed. In addition, 12 civilian bystanders, including a child, were wounded. A jeep belonging to Islamic Jihad had been loaded into the container, and had apparently been the target of the IOF attack.

4. November 2006, IOF extra-judicial execution of 2 members of Ezzedeen Al-Qassam Brigades (the armed wing of Hamas) in Gaza

On 20 November 2006, an IOF aircraft fired a missile at a white Mitsubishi car that had stopped in front of a house belonging to the family of Bassel Sha'aban Ubeid (22), a member of Ezzedeen Al-Qassam Brigades, the armed wing of Hamas, in the Al-Shejaeya neighborhood of eastern Gaza City. Ubaid and one of his colleagues, 26-year-old Abdul Qader Ahmed Habeeb, were both inside the car. The missile hit the car, killing both activists. In addition, 5 members of Amen family, including two children, sustained shrapnel injuries.

1. Hanan Mohammed Amen, aged 3 month,
2. Mohammed Farouq Amen, (28)
3. Samaher Mohammed Amen, (25)
4. Mo'men Hamdi Amen, (2)
5. Ahmed Farouq Amen, (26),

5. September 2006 IOF extra-judicial execution of 2 members of Ezzedeen Al-Qassam Brigades

On 5 September 2006, an IOF drone fired a missile at a car traveling near Al-Istiqama Mosque in Saddam Street in the densely populated Al-Junaina neighborhood. Two members of Ezzedeen Al-Qassam Brigades, the armed wing of Hamas, were traveling in the car. One of them, 28-year-old Ahmed Abdul Karim Ashour, was instantly killed, and the second, 34-year-old Ahmed Abdul Karim Al-Arqan, was seriously injured. Al-Arqan was evacuated to the European Hospital in Khan Yunis, southern Gaza, where he died two hours later from his injuries. Twenty six civilian bystanders, including 5 children, sustained shrapnel injuries.

6. May 2007, IOF extra-judicial execution operation kills disabled young man

On 4 May 2007, an IOF undercover unit killed 3 Palestinians, including a disabled young man, in Sielat al-Harhiya village, near Jenin. The undercover entered the Al-Zioud neighborhood of the village and opened fire at three Palestinians sitting on a piece of land that belonged to Izzat Zioud. The three Palestinians were instantly killed. One of the victims was twenty one year old Ahmed Izzat Said Zioud, the son of the landowner, a mentally disabled young man who was clearly not the intended target of the undercover unit. The other two victims were 28 year old Mahdi Mohammed Mahmoud Abu Al-Kheir, and nineteen year old Khaled Saleh Ashour.

Yahya Yousif Mohammed Jaradat (31) saw the IOF extra-judicial operation and gave PCHR an eye-witness statement. *"At about six o'clock in the evening [on 4 May 2007], I was on my way back from Jenin. I heard intense gunfire coming from the Al-Zioud neighborhood. At first I thought it was a clash between families. I drove to the [Al-Zioud] neighborhood but I saw nothing. Then I realized the firing was in the nearby area of forest. I walked there with Ahmed Taher Zioud [16], Abdullah Husni Zioud [36], and my 25-year-old brother, and we were surrounded by four Israeli soldiers. They ordered us to hold up our hands and also lift up our shirts. Then we were told to lie face down. Three vehicles arrived, and a man approached the four Israeli soldiers, who told him they had killed 3 Palestinians. This man said, "you were supposed to kill 7 Palestinians. What happened?" The soldiers talked to him in Hebrew, and I can understand Hebrew. They told him they had arrived [in the area] in two civilian vehicles with Palestinian registration plates. They added that the two vehicles traveled on different routes. A Palestinian car blocked the road and delayed one of the cars, and the second car got lost and arrived after the operation had been carried out. They soldiers said they had killed 3 Palestinians, but the others had escaped. One of the soldiers added he had wounded one of those who fled. The man who had listened to them then asked the soldiers to close the area and conduct a field scan. One of the soldiers ordered me to walk ahead of him and look at the bodies. I recognized Mahdi Abu Al-Kheir. The bodies had been horribly mutilated by gun shot wounds to the head. The soldier took me back to the others, and, after they had finished the field scan at about eight o'clock in the evening, we were then handcuffed and blindfolded. They took us to a military camp, interrogated us and then released us."*¹²

7. February 2007, extra-judicial execution of 3 civilians in Jenin

On 28 February 2007, an IOF undercover unit extra-judicially executed 3 Palestinians in Jenin refugee camp. One of the victims was Ashraf Mahmoud Al-Sa'adi, (25), a leader of the Al-Quds Brigades (the armed wing of Islamic Jihad) in the northern West Bank. The other 2 victims were also members of Islamic Jihad: Mohammed Ibrahim Abu Na'asa (34) and Ala'a Braiki (24). The three men were traveling in a car that was attacked by the IOF, who fired at close range, killing the three of them instantly. A PCHR investigation revealed that Al-Sa'di had initially been wounded, and could have been arrested, but IOF instead shot him dead at close range.

8. March 2008, extra-judicial executions of 4 civilians in Bethlehem

On 12 March 2008, an IOF undercover unit executed four Palestinian resistance activists traveling in a car in Jamal Abdul Nasser Street in the center of Bethlehem. The Palestinians were intercepted by a car with a Palestinian registration plate. This car contained an IOF undercover unit, who opened fire at the four Palestinians from an extremely close range, killing all four of them instantly. The victims were identified as:

1. Mohammed Shehada Abed Al-Ta'amari (45), a prominent activist of the Al-Quds Brigades (the armed wing of Islamic Jihad)
2. Ahmed Khalil Salem Al-Balboul (48), the leader of the Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades (an armed wing of Fatah), in Bethlehem;
3. Imad Hassan Mahmoud Al-Kamel "Al-Asakra" (35), an officer of the Palestinian National Security Forces
4. Issa Marzouq Zawahra (36), an Islamic Jihad activist and an elected member of the Municipal Council of Bethlehem

9. November 2006, extra-judicial execution of 4 civilians in Jenin

On 7 November 2006, an IOF undercover unit moved into Al-Yamoun village, southwest of Jenin, traveling in a civilian vehicle with a Palestinian registration plate. The vehicle stopped in the center of the village and IOF soldiers immediately opened fire at a number of Palestinians who were sitting near Al-Yamoun Bakery. Four Palestinians were wounded, but they were able to flee into a house belonging to Mohammed Salim Qabala. IOF military vehicles then moved into the village. IOF chased the four injured Palestinians into Mohammed Salim's house and shot them dead. The victims were all from Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades:

1. Salim Yousef Mahmoud Abu Al-Haija, (24), hit by several live bullets in the neck and the legs;
2. Ala'a Jamil Khamaisa, (24), hit by a live bullet in the head;
3. Taher Abed Abahra, (25), hit by live bullets in the head, the chest and the legs; and
4. Mahmoud Rajah Abu Hassan, (25), hit by a live bullets in the head and the left leg.

In the meantime, Aiman Suleiman Mahmoud Mustafa (31), a worker at the Al-Yamoun bakery, came into the street to see what was happening. IOF immediately shot him dead with two live bullets in the chest and the shoulders. Before withdrawing from the village, IOF arrested 11 Palestinians. The detainees included 3 wounded persons:

1. Ibrahim Mahmoud Nawahda (30);
2. Salim Ahmed Awad, (27)
3. Mohammed Yousef Abu Al-Haija (27).

10. September 2006 extra-judicial execution of injured civilians

On Thursday, 7 September 2006, an IOF undercover unit moved into Qabatya village, southeast of Jenin, traveling in two civilian cars with Palestinian registration plates. When the two cars arrived in the area of Al-Zakarna, IOF soldiers opened fire at two Palestinians who were walking in the area, injuring one of them, Rashid Mohammed Abdul Hadi Zakarna (37), with a live bullet to the right shoulder, while the other, Ashraf Adeeb Zakarna (26), was able to escape to a house belonging to Mohammed Qassem Zakarna. The Rashid Zakarna collapsed onto ground. Two local residents came out of their houses to assist him, and the IOF fired at them, wounding both:

1. Kamel Kayed Al-Loubani (28), wounded by a live bullet in the right leg; and
2. Zachariah Kayed Al-Loubani (32), wounded by a live bullet in the pelvis.

The two men were able to move back to their house. A number of IOF soldiers subsequently raided the house and of the IOF shot Kamel Al-Loubani dead. Other IOF brought Rashid Zakarna into the house and shot him dead. The Israeli extra judicial operation had apparently targeted Rashid Zakarna, who was allegedly wanted for being a member of Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades, a military wing of the Fatah movement. In order to arrest Ashraf Zakarna, IOF soldiers then raided a house belonging to Mohammed Qassem Zakarna, where dozens of Palestinians were celebrating a wedding party. They opened fire indiscriminately, wounding 12 Palestinian civilians, including 5 women. During their withdrawal from the village, IOF also opened fire at an unidentified number of Palestinian civilians. As a result, Mohammed Mahmoud Fahed Abu Al-Rub (36) was killed by a live bullet in the heart. Five other civilians were also wounded. One of them, 18-year-old Haitham Najah Subhi Assaf, was seriously wounded by a live bullet in the head. He was later pronounced clinically dead.

In his testimony to PCHR, Mahmoud Kayed Al-Loubani, 46, stated:

“At approximately 16:30 on Thursday, 7 September [2006], I saw Rashid Mohammed Abdul Hadi Zakarna, [36], and Ashraf Adeeb Zakarna, [26], walking near my house, which is located behind Qabatya secondary school. Two civilian cars with Palestinian registration plates were traveling behind them. Immediately, the two men were fired at from inside the two cars. Rashid was wounded by a live bullet in the right shoulder, while Ashraf was able to escape towards a house belonging to Mohammed Qassem Zakarna. A number of masked Israelis soldiers got out of the two cars and hid among local houses. My brothers, [32-year-old] Zachariah and [28-year-old] Kamel, went towards Rashid to offer him help. Immediately, IOF soldiers fired at them. The two were wounded by live bullets, but they were able to move back to the house. IOF soldiers broke into the house, bringing Zuhair Zakarna, who was wounded by a live bullet to the right leg, with them. I moved down to the first floor to offer help to my wounded brothers. IOF soldiers pointed their guns at me and ordered me to stay back. Soon, an IOF soldier shot my brother Kamel dead. Later, an Israeli military jeep arrived on the scene. The soldier who killed my brother expressed his pride at having killed my brother to an officer who was in the jeep, and the officer highly commended him. Soon after, IOF soldiers raided Mohammed Qassem Zakarna’s house to detain Ashraf. Women there screamed and IOF soldiers opened fire indiscriminately, wounding a number of civilians. When the soldiers brought Ashraf out, he was bleeding. I heard an Israeli soldier telling him not to be afraid, because they would make him have a rest like Rashid. Before their withdrawal from the village, IOF soldiers arrested Ashraf and my brother Zachariah.”¹³

13 PCHR Weekly Report 36/2006

Conclusion

IOF commit extra-judicial executions against Palestinian field and political activists from a number of Palestinian resistance organizations, despite the fact that it is usually possible for them to arrest these activists and prosecute them using due process. This Israeli policy of extra-judicial executions has been officially adopted by the Israeli political and military establishments, and is judicially sustained by the Israeli Supreme Court, despite being illegal under international humanitarian and human rights law.

Furthermore, international complacency concerning this issue has reinforced Israel's ability to continue its policy of extra-judicial executions; acts which constitute war crimes under international humanitarian law, and which the High Contracting Parties to the Geneva Conventions are legally obligated to take all steps necessary to prevent. In contravention of this obligation, the United States, a signatory of the Fourth Geneva Convention, has continued to provide strong military and political support for the illegal extra-judicial execution policy that Israel has adopted.

In the face of Israeli practices, PCHR calls upon the international community and the High Contracting Parties to the Fourth Geneva Convention of 1949 to:

1. Immediately intervene in order to stop these war crimes being committed by the Israeli Occupation Forces (IOF) against Palestinian civilians, and resistance activists, and to force Israel to respect and fulfill its obligations under the Fourth Geneva Convention, in the Occupied Palestinian Territory (OPT);
2. Intervene effectively in order to stop the crimes of extra judicial executions against all Palestinians, which represent a form of summary execution, and to prosecute IOF for its crimes;
3. Provide immediate international protection for all Palestinian civilians in the OPT.
